God, you are the God of glory.

Thank you for making me, me.
I ask you to make me intelligent and discerning in knowing you personally. Make my eyes focused and clear, so I can see exactly what it is you are calling me to do. May I grasp the utter extravagance of your work in us who trust you—endless energy, boundless strength!

Show me the incredible greatness of your power for me who believes in you; the same mighty power that raised Christ from the dead and seated him in the place of honour at God's right hand in the heavenly realms. Let me know your hope.
Amen

God, you are the God of glory.

Thank you for making me, me.
I ask you to make me intelligent and discerning in knowing you personally. Make my eyes focused and clear, so I can see exactly what it is you are calling me to do. May I grasp the utter extravagance of your work in us who trust you—endless energy, boundless strength!

Show me the incredible greatness of your power for me who believes in you; the same mighty power that raised Christ from the dead and seated him in the place of honour at God's right hand in the heavenly realms. Let me know your hope.
Amen

God, you are the God of glory.

Thank you for making me, me.
I ask you to make me intelligent and discerning in knowing you personally. Make my eyes focused and clear, so I can see exactly what it is you are calling me to do. May I grasp the utter extravagance of your work in us who trust you—endless energy, boundless strength!

Show me the incredible greatness of your power for me who believes in you; the same mighty power that raised Christ from the dead and seated him in the place of honour at God's right hand in the heavenly realms. Let me know your hope.
Amen

God, you are the God of glory.

Thank you for making me, me.
I ask you to make me intelligent and discerning in knowing you personally. Make my eyes focused and clear, so I can see exactly what it is you are calling me to do. May I grasp the utter extravagance of your work in us who trust you—endless energy, boundless strength!

Show me the incredible greatness of your power for me who believes in you; the same mighty power that raised Christ from the dead and seated him in the place of honour at God's right hand in the heavenly realms. Let me know your hope.
Amen