

Martha served. Lazarus was reclining at the table. Mary came in with a jar of very expensive aromatic oils, anointed Jesus' feet, then wiped them with her hair. John 12:1-3

Serving, listening, learning, devotion, generosity, humility, being.
Which do you find easy? Which are hard?

Not long before she anointed Jesus, Mary had used similar perfume as she prepared her brother's body for burial. How might this have influenced her actions?

Do you see yourself in Martha, Mary or Lazarus?
Why?

Are you like Mary, unashamed in your worship?
Do you feel self-conscious?
What might you do about it?
